In honor . . . In honor of a man. In honor of a man who has devoted his time and his patience in helping this staff create an annual worthy of our school. Because of the immeasurable support and devotion he has given the Argonaut, we, the Argonaut staff of 1963, would like to dedicate this year's annual to Mr. Louis Hill. He has given innumerable hours of his own time, on Saturday, during vacation, and after school, to help us produce this year's annual. Many times we have come close to missing our deadlines, but through his "witty barbs" we have always managed . . . somehow. As you continue through this yearbook, you will find on each page many examples of his fine photography. Mr. Hill joined the teaching staff of Garden Grove High School three years ago. Since that time the annual staff has received many honors for its publications. We know, Mr. Hill, that without your help and support this would never have been accomplished. Our most sincere thanks from the entire staff.

THE STAFF

*Just what we needed

you are here
and we are so glad
you are here

coming years. You're a real sweet guy.
Have fun this

MOST WORTHY

Four years of service to the school, with unselfish and excellent attention to all aspects of student body service, Sue Hawley leaves a record of highest caliber. As editor of the Argolog, cabinet officer, secretary, she gave unstintingly of her time and still maintained a record of academic merit. She did not achieve the honor without high effort. Her competitors exhibit the same high quality of devotion to the school, and their school records are almost without parallel. Pat Floyd and Jean Mann are outstanding Argonauts.

ARGONAUTS

Alan Langdon

Highest of honors, the Most Worthy Argonaut title means that Alan Langdon has earned the accolade by his selfless service to Garden Grove High School. The competition was strong. Four year records of Tom Carter and David Kersey were outstanding, but in the final analysis, based on all areas of academic, scholastic, attitude, and service to the school, Alan Langdon was declared the winner. As Most Worthy Argonaut he leaves a record of devotion to the student body and the school.

ADMINISTRATION

Jerry —
It was lots of fun
this year in Grench laughing at Mr. B and all! You've got a really great personality and I'm sure you'll go far. Good luck next year as a senior and always have fun this summer and be good!

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

STUDENT BODY

Student Body President

Intelligence, excellent leadership, and a cheerful willingness to help others best describe our Student Body President, Alan Langdon. He used enthusiasm when moderating at school assemblies, initiative when presiding over Student Council and Cabinet meetings, and readiness to represent the students of Garden Grove High School. Alan won recognition for the Argonauts with his outstanding debating ability during his past years at Garden Grove. We all admire our 1962-63 Student Body President, Alan Langdon.

Alan Langdon officially awards the Hello Daze 'signature' winners with record albums

OFFICERS

TOM CARTER

Vice President

Being Vice-President, Tom Carter was in charge of planning all student assemblies and, in case of the President's absence, presided over Cabinet and Student Council meetings. Tom, along with his other duties, also supervised student elections and voting for new amendments that came up during the year. Taking an active part in school affairs and using his democratic procedures, Tom has effectively aided in running a smooth and well organized student body government.

SUE HAWLEY

Secretary

Acting as secretary of the student body, Sue Hawley has diligently and efficiently taken minutes at Student Council meetings. These minutes were later typed, duplicated, and distributed to the homeroom classes for class reading. Assisted by Judy Thomas, Sue also kept an accurate and up-to-date account of the social and business correspondence of Garden Grove High School. Working within the Cabinet and other school activities, Sue exemplifies an excellent leader of student government.

STUDENT

As the Legislative or rule-making body of the student government, the Student Council enables more students to play an active part in school affairs. These students are chosen from each class, each semester to attend the meetings and report to their classes the next day the affairs of their government. Various business issues, student activities, control problems and many other aspects of student life are discussed and are voted upon by the representatives as their class wishes. The Student Council watched over all student activities and was the supervisory body of the student government.

COLOR DAY

Is there anything more exciting than class competition? You wouldn't think so if you attended our Color Day last year. The classes were really in shape—never in your life can you see more skill in egg throwing, sack racing, three-legged racing, pie eating, or grace and strongness as was displayed in the Tug O' War. In addition the brutality displayed in the Capture the Flag was supreme. Of course, some classes were more skilled and more brutal than others and this was the final outcome: Sophomores, first; Juniors, second; Seniors, third; and Freshmen, last.

And you think the ants have it tough?

SENIORS Strong, brave, graceful

Lynne Natland and Scott Powers.

The Junior-Senior Prom highlighted another school year. The theme, "a touch of Venus," was carried out in the Roman style decorations. Gold balloons, ferns, statues of Greek gods, and a gilt fountain provided atmosphere for this festive affair.

Graduation was carried out with the respect and seriousness due a retiring class. The three Seniors who spoke for their class were John Sullivan, Jo Ann Stuart and Harry Arnold, Glenellen Cooper sang. The class had many top students and reached an all time high in scholarship awards. When a toll of accomplishments were taken they came out an excellent class and we were sorry to see them go.

IN DEDICATION

BOOSTER OF YEAR

In honor of his outstanding contributions to the athletic program, the Argonaut staff wishes to dedicate this award to Mr. John McInnis.

Mr. McInnis, who, incidentally, has no children, has been at the school, spends many of his outside hours working for the athletic Boosters Club.

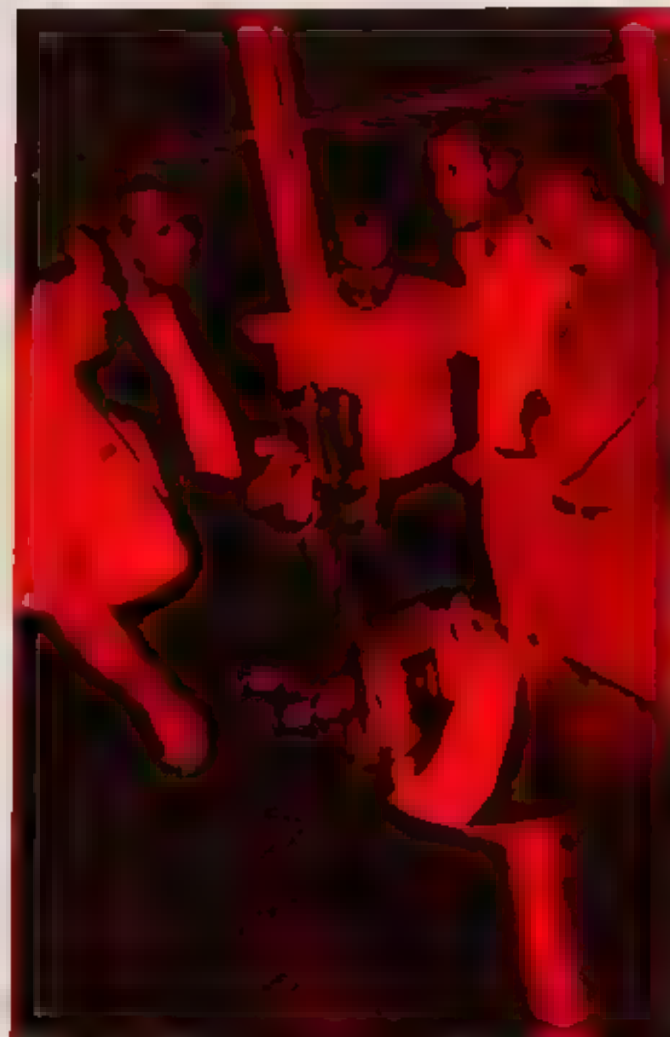

Among other things, the former Boosters Club president takes all sports banquets, takes tickets at various athletic events, and sells refreshments during games.

The greatest season for Garden Grove's football team in a decade! This sums up the accomplishments of the 1962 Varsity which won all of its encounters. What caused this seemingly miraculous change in G.G.'s team? Was it the careful and expert coaching? Was it the fight of the grid-ders themselves? We can say it was an unbeatable combination of both, which placed Garden Grove as the top team of the city and of the Freeway League. Men like Henri Jensen and Rick Henshaw returned from last year to star on the grid-iron once again were representative of the team's spirit and the will to win. The first-rate job done by the coaches was the other factor that brought out the best in every player and skyrocketed the 1962 season to a position that will not soon be forgotten in the annals of Orange County.

A Junior ring: The symbol of a graduating class and the mark of an upper-classman.

Some of the Juniors will look at their rings and think, "one more year to go," but others will think proudly of their class' accomplishments; as, winning Homecoming twice (1961 and 1962) or Color Day (1962).

Not one freshman will tell you that he doesn't want to be an upperclassman, and not one upperclassman will deny that he is proud to have achieved his status on campus.

Have you ever asked yourself what your ring means to you?

Terry Stoddard, Carol Goodhue, Gerry Bartol, and Jerry Cade are the Junior candidates for A.F.S

Eldon King entertains at an assembly.

Juniors work toward their goal of winning Homecoming

PRESIDENT Jim Dunn

Senior Class President, Jim Dunn was the head of all Senior class activities. Jim showed his leadership ability in planning Homecoming, the Senior play, the Senior breakfast, Baccalaureate, and graduation. These events could not have been a success without his diligent work. Jim had a ready smile for everyone and was gay and enthusiastic in spite of his busy school schedule.

Senior class officers, Virginia Clark, Jim Dunn, Jeff Codawell, and Judy Thomas make plans for Homecoming

OFFICERS

VICE PRESIDENT Jeff Cadwell

SECRETARY Virginia Clark

TREASURER Judy Thomas

Jeff Cadwell, Vice President; Virginia Clark, Secretary; and Judy Thomas, Treasurer assisted Senior Class President, Jim Dunn in planning Senior activities.

With Homecoming, Baccalaureate, and graduation, these people were kept busy. They helped with behind-the-scenes work. They helped promote class spirit and held meetings and also organized committees. Because they did the work well and enthusiastically, this year was made more eventful for the Senior Class.

YELL LEADER Jim Isham

DRESS REPRESENTATIVE: Marge Harper

DRESS REPRESENTATIVE Karin Johnson

"Put away that comb!" "Don't put that lipstick on in class!" These were familiar words heard from Karin Johnson and Marge Harper, dress representatives. Always alert and on their toes, they helped choose the senior nominees for girl-of-the-month. Karin and Marge also attended the class meetings and helped with preparations for class activities.

Senior spirit was once again led by Jim Isham, yell leader. Jim, a member of the varsity football team, tried hard to get the Seniors to yell and show good spirit at pep assemblies and games. All in all Jim has done a fine job and proved that the Senior class was behind the team.

Many privileges are bestowed upon the Senior Class, among them being a Senior Sanctuary in which only Seniors are allowed. This year, because of the construction, the former sanctuary was destroyed. A new sanctuary was initiated by the Seniors until the restoration of the old one.

A mis amigos en Garden Grove:

Son tantas las experiencias que llevo realizadas en este país, que necesitaría todo el año para contarlos pero las tres mayores fueron: el idioma, las costumbres y el colegio. Al principio tenía muchas dificultades con el idioma, pero aprendí pronto, porque en mi familia nadie habla español.

Las costumbres de este país, son muy diferentes a España. Aquí aprendí muchas cosas nuevas, como esquí acuático, fútbol, a jugar a los bolos, a pescar, Ping Pong, shuffleboard. En mi país, el colegio también es muy diferente, no tenemos bailar, ni actividades deportivas tan fútiles. Unquiese como en esto. Y es más difícil a que.

Os agradezco

ARGONAUT REPRESENTATIVE

Bill Poledouris

Bill Poledouris had the opportunity, given to only a select few, to represent Garden Grove High School and America as a summer foreign exchange student to Switzerland. Bill was chosen on the basis of his scholastic and extra-curricular activities. He was sent with the knowledge that he must diplomatically convey a feeling of democracy and goodwill to these people in this distant country. Bill returned with a deep understanding of the government and customs of our neighbors across the sea.

During his "spare" time, Bill joins with Rick Bluhm, and Bob Wurster, to complete the Southlanders trio

Bill's foster family in Switzerland.

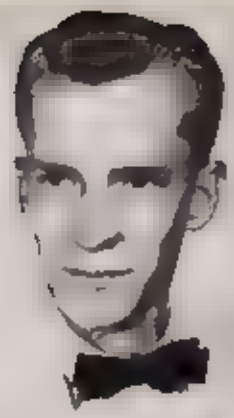

Much of Bill's time is spent playing the piano.

Seniors Mike Forrest and Barbara Ottley make last minute preparations for graduation ceremonies.
